RE: Judgement Lien on Kim Warford:

Dear Ms. Dankovic,

This case was brought to our attention by Mr. Warford. He stated that he was trying to sell some property and found there was a lien on it.

In reviewing our files, there was a Referee Report filed January 25, 1988 reducing the arrearage of $3,017.10 to a judgment and filed with the Clerk of Courts. Part of those arrearages ($945.30) we due to the Department of Human Services the balance of $2,071.80 was due to Gilda Warford (now Gatrell). This was done on court order # 30554, Gilda Warford, now Gatrell vs. Kim A Warford. It is my understanding that this judgment has been renewed since 1988.

The CSEA has collected the $945.30 due to the Department of Human Services, which leave a balance of $2,071.78 due to Ms. Gatrell. This agency feels we should advise your office of this collection so you will have a corrected balance in case Mr. Warford would try to sell his property in the future.

Please make note of the amount we have collected towards this debt in your records.

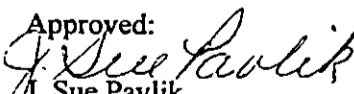

Thank you for your continued cooperation.

Sincerely,

Pat Channell
CSEA Investigator

NOTICE OF FILING OF FOREIGN JUDGMENT

You are hereby notified that on November 26, 1991, pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 2329.022, United States of America, for the use and benefit of Brantley Metal Systems, Inc., filed a copy of the judgment obtained by them against you on December 2, 1991 in the United States District Court, Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division, a copy of which is attached to this notice.

This judgment, on being filed pursuant to this section, has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of a Court of Common Pleas of this state, and may be enforced or satisfied in same manner as a judgment of a court of common pleas. However, no execution or other process for enforcements of a judgment that is filed pursuant to this section may issue until thirty days after the date that judgment is filed.

If you are able to show to this court that an appeal is pending or will be taken from this judgment, or that a stay of execution has been granted, and if proof is given to this court that you have furnished the security for satisfaction of the judgment that is required by the jurisdiction in which the judgment was issued, this court will stay enforcement of the judgment until the appeal is finally decided, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires or is vacated.

Further, if you are able to show to this court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of this court would be stayed, the court will, upon requiring the security for satisfaction of the judgment provided under Ohio law, stay enforcement of the judgment for an appropriate period.

You therefore have a period of 30 days beginning on September 27, 1993, the date of filing of this judgment, within which to request, and to demonstrate to this court that you are entitled to, a stay of enforcement of this judgment. Failure to make such a request within this time may result in the execution of this judgment against your property without further notice.

It is recommended that you contact an attorney if you wish to request a stay of enforcement of this judgment. You may also wish to contact plaintiff's attorney in this state, David H. DeSelm, DESELM & BAKER, 819 Steubenville Avenue, Cambridge, OH 43725, and whose telephone number is (614) 432-6397.

CASE NO. 7944

NOTICE OF FILING OF FOREIGN JUDGMENT

You are hereby notified that on November 12, 1993, pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 2329.022, Wallin Roofing Company, Inc. filed a copy of the judgment obtained by them against you on September 10, 1993 in the Palm Beach County, Florida, Circuit Court, under Case No. CL 91-9400-AO, a copy of which is attached to this notice.

This judgment, on being filed pursuant to this section, has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of a Court of Common Pleas of this state, and may be enforced or satisfied in same manner as a judgment of a court of common pleas. However, no execution or other process for enforcements of a judgment that is filed pursuant to this section may issue until thirty days after the date that judgment is filed.

If you are able to show to this court that an appeal is pending or will be taken from this judgment, or that a stay of execution has been granted, and if proof is given to this court that you have furnished the security for satisfaction of the judgment that is required by the jurisdiction in which the judgment was issued, this court will stay enforcement of the judgment until the appeal is finally decided, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires of is vacated.

Further, if you are able to show to this court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of this court would be stayed, the court will, upon requiring the security for satisfaction of the judgment provided under Ohio law, stay enforcement of the judgment for an appropriate period.

You therefore have a period of 30 days beginning on November 12, 1993, the date of filing of this judgment, within which to request, and to demonstrate to this court that you are entitled to, a stay of enforcement of this judgment. Failure to make such a request within this time may result in the execution of this judgment against your property without further notice.

It is recommended that you contact an attorney if you wish to request a stay of enforcement of this judgment. You may also wish to contact plaintiff's attorney in this state, Karen M. Sullivan, 100 W. Cypress Creek Rd., Suite 865, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33309, whose telephone number is (305) 776-5822.

93 SEP 10 PM 1:34
PALM BEACH COUNTY FLORIDA

FINAL JUDGMENT ON CLAIMS AGAINST BEZTAK/BEZNOS GROUP FINANCIAL SERVICES, CORP.

Plaintiff, WALLIN ROOFING COMPANY, INC., claims against the Defendant, BEZTAK/BEZNOS GROUP FINANCIAL SERVICES, CORP.

Plaintiff brought suit against BEZTAK CONSTRUCTION COMPANY (hereinafter, "BCC") and BEZTAK HOMES, INC. (hereinafter, "BHI") for failure to pay Plaintiff for certain roofs installed by Plaintiff on two projects. Plaintiff alleged in its Second Amended Complaint that Plaintiff had entered a written contract with BCC pursuant to which Plaintiff installed roofs on a project by the name of Spring Lakes.
Plaintiff's contract provided that Plaintiff was to be paid $375,000.00 by BCC for its work. However, Plaintiff alleges that BCC refused to pay Plaintiff $37,570.00 which was due and owing on said project. Plaintiff further alleges that it submitted bid proposals on a project by the name of Fox Landing which BHI was developing, and that pursuant to the terms of the proposals Plaintiff commenced the installation of roofs on certain lots on said project for BHI. However, BHI only paid Plaintiff a small portion of the work completed and owed Plaintiff a balance of $48,405.80.

134

Plaintiff obtained default final judgments against BCC and BHI for failure to respond to the Court's orders requiring said Defendants to submit to discovery depositions.

Plaintiff had also named BEZTAK OF FLORIDA, INC. (hereinafter, "BOF") and BEZTAK/BEZDOS GROUP FINANCIAL SERVICES, CORP. (hereinafter, "BBGFS") as Defendants in this cause and asserted that they were alter egos of the other Defendants, BCC and BHI, that they had ignored their separate corporate existences and had been operated as alter egos, agents and instrumentalities of the other corporations and that the defendant corporations had appropriated the assets of BCC leaving it a shell corporation and leaving Plaintiff with no recourse against BCC for the debts rightfully owed to Plaintiff.

THE LAW

Pursuant to Florida law, allegations of mere instrumentality and improper conduct state a cause of action. Dania Jai-Alai Palace, Inc. v. Sykes, 450 So.2d 1114, 117 (Fla. 1984).

Plaintiff has alleged both mere instrumentality and improper conduct sufficient to put Defendant on notice and to state a cause of action under Florida law. The mere instrumentality allegations are numerous in paragraphs 8 and 9 of the Second Amended Complaint. Further paragraph 10 of the Second Amended Complaint states, "the defendant corporations have, upon information and belief, appropriated the assets of Beztak Construction leaving it a shell corporation and leaving Plaintiff with no recourse against Beztak Construction for the debts rightfully owed Plaintiff by Beztak Construction." The specific allegation of improper conduct found acceptable by the Supreme Court in Dania Jai-Alai was that "the parent did so to mislead creditors and to avoid liability." Dania Jai-Alai, at 1117.

In the course of discovery and as shown by the general ledger statements supplied by defendants to Plaintiff, Plaintiff has proved that Defendant, BBGFS, is only one of a network of Beztak entities, all directed by similar officers, directors and shareholders, which have acted in such a way that BCC was not operated as a separate and independent company nor was it paid income for the work it did on the Beztak projects. BCC was operated as a mere shell of a company which had no bank accounts in its own name other than insignificant petty cash accounts, had no employees, had no leases for its principal place of business, paid no rent, received no contractors fees for numerous Beztak projects that it worked on, paid all costs and received all reimbursements for costs through the bank account of BBGFS. Moreover, the principals, who controlled BBGFS, by not paying BCC the income funds it was due for the projects it worked for Beztak and by channelling all expense payments and reimbursements through a bank account only in the name of BBGFS, employed BBGFS in such a way as to constitute a fraud upon all of BCC's creditors including Plaintiff. The principals effectively assured that there would be no money in BCC's name which could be subject to the claims of its creditors. Until the general ledger statements were provided Plaintiff was unaware that various other entities were also involved in the scheme to keep funds out of BCC's name. Plaintiff's failure to name such other parties in the instant cause does not erase or excuse the part that BBGFS played in perpetrating the fraud upon BCC's creditors, including Plaintiff. Without BBGFS' assistance in channelling the funds and keeping the same out of BCC's name the same would have been accessible to BCC's creditors and would have been subject to execution. Moreover the general ledger of BBGFS also reveals that BBGFS was used for numerous intercompany transfers of funds away from BCC and to the other Beztak companies. Through the use of BBGFS the principals could control the amount of revenue either in or not in BCC's name at any point in time, and through the use of both BCC and BBGFS the principals could shield themselves from contractual liability to the subcontractors of BCC. By way of example, the principals in BEZTAK COMPANY chose not to pay BCC its contractor's fee for the Spring Lakes project in 1989 or 1990 although draws and payments from the bank were still being made on that project and although BCC's contract with the developer provided that it was to receive a portion of every draw as its contractor's fee. BEZTAK COMPANY was the general partner of the limited partnership which had agreed to pay BCC on the Spring Lakes project. BEZTAK COMPANY was also one of the numerous companies which worked through BBGFS. By failing to pay BCC its contractor's fee and rendering BCC insolvent BEZTAK COMPANY could assure that it would not have to pay the subcontractors because it had no direct contractual liability to the subcontractors. And, unlike an independent general contractor, BCC would not need to press for payment, as it had no employees which it needed to compensate, it had no rent to pay, the profits it might make off of the project would only be money going back to the principals of the development company, and it had no separate expenses to pay as all its expenses were disbursed and reimbursed through BBGFS and intercompany transfers.

The failure to recognize the separate corporate existence of an entity and to operate it as a bona fide corporation in order to avoid contractual liability has been upheld in Florida as a basis for piercing the corporate veil. See, USP Real Estate v. Discount Auto Parts, 570 So.2d 386 (1 DCA 1990) (after obtaining a judgment against a wholly-owned subsidiary to which retail lease had ostensibly been assigned, lessor obtained court order impleading parent corporation as third-party defendant and sought to have parent liable for judgment against subsidiary. Appellate court held that evidence established that parent used subsidiary to mislead creditors or perpetrate a fraud upon them where subsidiary's officers were same as parents, subsidiary never opened a bank account or had funds of its own but was at all times dependent on the credit of its parent, reported no income, never had inventory, never had receipts or expenditures, received no invoices or bills for rent, had no written lease or sublease, never had any employees.)

Florida Courts have upheld a piercing of the corporate veil where the principals in a business had deliberately increased the construction costs on which their design fee was to be based, and then added an additional amount to the increased cost for a design fee, and charged their clients for the same, contrary to the terms of a contract; the Court having found the same to be a sufficient showing of improper conduct. Eagle v. Benefield-Chappell, Inc., 476 So.2d 716 (4 DCA 1985).

CONCLUSION

The evidence shows that Defendant, BEZTAK/BEZNOS GROUP FINANCIAL SERVICES CORP., was part of a network of closely-held related entities comprised of the same principals and as BEZTAK/BEZNOS GROUP FINANCIAL SERVICES CORP. assisted or was used as an instrumentality in the procedure whereby BEZTAK CONSTRUCTION COMPANY'S revenues were either not paid at all or were only paid by intercompany transfers through BEZTAK/BEZNOS GROUP FINANCIAL SERVICES CORP. to other Beztak entities in order to keep the funds out of BEZTAK CONSTRUCTION COMPANY'S name and effectively out the reach of BEZTAK CONSTRUCTION COMPANY'S creditors, BEZTAK CONSTRUCTION COMPANY'S corporate veil should be pierced and the entities behind BEZTAK CONSTRUCTION COMPANY, including BEZTAK/BEZNOS GROUP FINANCIAL SERVICE CORP. which received, disbursed or transferred all the funds of BEZTAK CONSTRUCTION COMPANY, should be held responsible for the liabilities of BEZTAK CONSTRUCTION COMPANY. Wherefore, it is hereby ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Plaintiff WALLIN ROOFING COMPANY, INC., do have and recover of and from the Defendant BEZTAK/BEZNOS GROUP FINANCIAL SERVICES, CORP., a Michigan corporation the sum of $111,160.68 plus interest from the date of the Final Judgment entered herein on January 19, 1993 and court that you have furnished the security for satisfaction of the judgment that is required by the jurisdiction in which the judgment was issued, this court will stay enforcement of the judgment until the appeal is finally decided, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires or is vacated. Further, if you are unable to show to this court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of this court would be stayed, the court will, upon requiring the security for satisfaction of the judgment provided under Ohio law, stay enforcement of the judgment for an appropriate period. You therefore, have a period of thirty (30) days beginning on December 10, 1993 , the date of filing of this judgment, within to which request and to demonstrate to this court that you are entitled to a Stay of Enforcement of this Judgment. Failure to make such a request within this time may result in the execution of this judgment against your property without further notice.

It is recommended that you contact an attorney if you wish to request a Stay of Enforcement of this Judgment. You may also wish to contact Plaintiff's attorney in this state, Stewart D. MacDonald, 1200 Metropolitan Tower, Youngstown, Ohio 44503, telephone number (216) 747-4404.

court that you have furnished the security for satisfaction of the judgment that is required by the jurisdiction in which the judgment was issued, this court will stay enforcement of the judgment until the appeal is finally decided, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires or is vacated. Further, if you are unable to show to this court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of this court would be stayed, the court will, upon requiring the security for satisfaction of the judgment provided under Ohio law, stay enforcement of the judgment for an appropriate period.

You therefore, have a period of thirty (30) days beginning on November 29, 1993, the date of filing of this judgment, within to which request and to demonstrate to this court that you are entitled to a Stay of Enforcement of this Judgment. Failure to make such a request within this time may result in the execution of this judgment against your property without further notice.

It is recommended that you contact an attorney if you wish to request a Stay of Enforcement of this Judgment. You may also wish to contact Plaintiff's attorney in this state, Stewart D. MacDonald, 1200 Metropolitan Tower, Youngstown, Ohio 44503, telephone number (216) 747-4404.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that this is essential for the proper management of the organization's finances and for ensuring compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific procedures that must be followed when recording transactions. This includes the requirement to use the correct accounting entries and to ensure that all supporting documentation is properly filed and maintained.

3. The third part of the document discusses the role of the accounting department in providing accurate and timely financial information to management. It highlights the importance of regular reporting and the need to identify and address any discrepancies or errors as soon as they are discovered.

4. The fourth part of the document provides a detailed overview of the accounting cycle, from the initial recording of transactions to the final closing of the books. It includes a step-by-step guide to help ensure that all steps are completed correctly and in a timely manner.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of internal controls in preventing and detecting errors and fraud. It provides a list of key internal control activities that should be implemented and monitored on a regular basis to ensure the integrity of the financial reporting process.
