CASE NO. 9120

CamtelCo, Inc

NOTICE OF FILING OF FOREIGN JUDGMENT

You are hereby notified that on November 24, 1999, pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 2329.022, Lukas, Nace, Gutierrez & Sachs, Chartered filed a copy of the judgment obtained by them against you on March 16, 1999 in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia, a copy of which is attached to this notice.

This judgment, on being filed pursuant to this section, has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of a Court of Common Pleas of this state, and may be enforced or satisfied in same manner as a judgment of a court of common pleas. However, no execution or other process for enforcements of a judgment that is filed pursuant to this section may issue until thirty days after the date that judgment is filed.

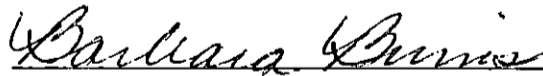

If you are able to show to this court that an appeal is pending or will be taken from this judgment, or that a stay of execution has been granted, and if proof is given to this court that you have furnished the security for satisfaction of the judgment that is required by the jurisdiction in which the judgment was issued, this court will stay enforcement of the judgment until the appeal is finally decided, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires or is vacated.

Further, if you are able to show to this court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of this court would be stayed, the court will, upon requiring the security for satisfaction of the judgment provided under Ohio law, stay enforcement of the judgment for an appropriate period.

You therefore have a period of 30 days beginning on November 24, 1999, the date of filing of this judgment, within which to request, and to demonstrate to this court that you are entitled to, a stay of enforcement of this judgment. Failure to make such a request within this time may result in the execution of this judgment against your property without further notice.

It is recommended that you contact an attorney if you wish to request a stay of enforcement of this judgment. You may also wish to contact plaintiff's attorney in this state, Joel R. Kaswell and Elizabeth H. Cronise, and whose telephone number is (202) 857-3500.

ENTRY OF JUDGMENT UPON DEFAULT

This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff's Motion for Default Judgment. The Court finds that although duly served with Summons in this matter, Defendants have failed to move or plead to Plaintiff's Complaint within the time permitted by law. The Court further finds that the Trustee filed this adversary proceeding for authority to sell certain real property free of the claims of Defendants. It is therefore

ORDERED that Debtors' discharge granted January 17, 2000, should be and hereby is revoked and the Clerk shall give notice thereof in accordance with law; and it is further ORDERED that Plaintiff Larry J. McClatchey, Trustee, is granted judgment against Defendants William Lee Brown and Karen Louise Brown, to sell the Subject Property at 19822 Kansas Road, Salesville, Ohio free of liens, claims and encumbrances, provided that the Trustee satisfy, at closing, the mortgage interest of Bank One, N.A.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
OF GUERNSEY COUNTY

Green Tree Financial Service

VS

CASE NO. 9819

Danny L Jackson dba Jackson Construction Inc

NOTICE OF FILING OF FOREIGN JUDGMENT

You are hereby notified that on March 24, 2000, pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 2329.022, Green Tree Financial Service filed a copy of the judgment obtained by them against you on January 12, 1999 in the Circuit Court of the Fourteenth Judicial Circuit Henry County, Illinois a copy of which is attached to this notice.

This judgment, on being filed pursuant to this section, has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of a Court of Common Pleas of this state, and may be enforced or satisfied in same manner as a judgment of a court of common pleas. However, no execution or other process for enforcements of a judgment that is filed pursuant to this section may issue until thirty days after the date that judgment is filed.

If you are able to show to this court that an appeal is pending or will be taken from this judgment, or that a stay of execution has been granted, and if proof is given to this court that you have furnished the security for satisfaction of the judgment that is required by the jurisdiction in which the judgment was issued, this court will stay enforcement of the judgment until the appeal is finally decided, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires or is vacated.

Further, if you are able to show to this court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of this court would be stayed, the court will, upon requiring the security for satisfaction of the judgment provided under Ohio law, stay enforcement of the judgment for an appropriate period.

You therefore have a period of 30 days beginning on March 24, 2000, the date of filing of this judgment, within which to request, and to demonstrate to this court that you are entitled to, a stay of enforcement of this judgment. Failure to make such a request within this time may result in the execution of this judgment against your property without further notice.

It is recommended that you contact an attorney if you wish to request a stay of enforcement of this judgment. You may also wish to contact plaintiff's attorney in this state, Marilee C Boroski, and whose telephone number is (614) 228-7272.

OF GUERNSEY COUNTY

FORD MOTOR CREDIT CO.

NANCY A. LAKE

CASE NO. 9915

IL 15 Pg. 101

NOTICE OF FILING OF FOREIGN JUDGMENT

You are hereby notified that on December 14, 2000, pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 2329.022, Ford Motor Credit Co. filed a copy of the judgment obtained by them against you on April 24, 2000 in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division, Special Civil Part (Salem County) a copy of which is attached to this notice.

This judgment, on being filed pursuant to this section, has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of a Court of Common Pleas of this state, and may be enforced or satisfied in same manner as a judgment of a court of common pleas. However, no execution or other process for enforcements of a judgment that is filed pursuant to this section may issue until thirty days after the date that judgment is filed.

If you are able to show to this court that an appeal is pending or will be taken from this judgment, or that a stay of execution has been granted, and if proof is given to this court that you have furnished the security for satisfaction of the judgment that is required by the jurisdiction in which the judgment was issued, this court will stay enforcement of the judgment until the appeal is finally decided, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires or is vacated.

Further, if you are able to show to this court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of this court would be stayed, the court will, upon requiring the security for satisfaction of the judgment provided under Ohio law, stay enforcement of the judgment for an appropriate period.

You therefore have a period of 30 days beginning on December 14, 2000, the date of filing of this judgment, within which to request, and to demonstrate to this court that you are entitled to, a stay of enforcement of this judgment. Failure to make such a request within this time may result in the execution of this judgment against your property without further notice.

It is recommended that you contact an attorney if you wish to request a stay of enforcement of this judgment. You may also wish to contact plaintiff's attorney in this state, Holly N. Wolf, and whose telephone number is 614-228-7272.

NOTICE OF FILING OF FOREIGN JUDGMENT

You are hereby notified that on May 3, 2001, pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 2329.022, U S Trust Company filed a copy of the judgment obtained by them against you January 21, 1997 in the District Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts a copy of which is attached to this notice.

This judgment, on being filed pursuant to this section, has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of a Court of Common Pleas of this state, and may be enforced or satisfied in same manner as a judgment of a court of common pleas. However, no execution or other process for enforcements of a judgment that is filed pursuant to this section may issue until thirty days after the date that judgment is filed.

If you are able to show to this court that an appeal is pending or will be taken from this judgment, or that a stay of execution has been granted, and if proof is given to this court that you have furnished the security for satisfaction of the judgment that is required by the jurisdiction in which the judgment was issued, this court will stay enforcement of the judgment until the appeal is finally decided, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires of is vacated.

Further, if you are able to show to this court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of this court would be stayed, the court will, upon requiring the security for satisfaction of the judgment provided under Ohio law, stay enforcement of the judgment for an appropriate period.

You therefore have a period of 30 days beginning on May 1, 2001, the date of filing of this judgment, within which to request, and to demonstrate to this court that you are entitled to, a stay of enforcement of this judgment. Failure to make such a request within this time may result in the execution of this judgment against your property without further notice.

It is recommended that you contact an attorney if you wish to request a stay of enforcement of this judgment. You may also wish to contact plaintiff's attorney in this state, David B. Pariser, and whose telephone number is (614) 253-1010.

NOTICE OF THE FILING OF FOREIGN JUDGMENT

FILED
COMMON PLEAS COURT
01 DEC -7 AM 10:50
TERRA A. BANKOVIC
CLERK OF COURTS
GUERNSEY CO., OHIO

You are hereby notified that on 12-7, 2001, pursuant to Section 2329.022 of the Ohio Revised Code, LEASE ATLANTA, INC. c/o Randy T. Slovin, 11340 Montgomery Road, Suite 210, Cincinnati, Ohio 45249, file a copy of the judgment it obtained by it against you on 9/19/95 in the DeKalb County Court, a copy of which is attached to this Notice. State of Georgia

This Judgment, on being filed pursuant to Title 23 of the Ohio Revised Code, has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceeds for reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of a court of Common Pleas of this state, and may be enforced or satisfied in the same manner as a judgment of a court of common pleas. However, no execution or other process for enforcement of a judgment that is filed pursuant to this section may be issued until thirty days after the date that judgment is filed.

If you are able to show to this court that an appeal is pending or will be taken from this judgment, or that a stay of execution has been granted, and if proof is given to this court that you have furnished the security for satisfaction of the judgment that is required by the jurisdiction in which the judgment was issued, this court will stay enforcement of the judgment until the appeal is finally decided, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires or is vacated.

Further, if you are able to show to this court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of this court would be stayed, the court will, upon requiring security for satisfaction of the judgment provided under Ohio Law, stay enforcement of the judgment for an appropriate period.

You therefore have a period of 30 days beginning on 12-7-, 2001 the date of filing of this judgment, within which to request, and to demonstrate to this court that you are entitled to, a stay of enforcement of this judgment. Failure to make such request within this time will result in the execution of this judgment against your property without further notice.

It is recommended that you contact an attorney if you wish to request a stay of enforcement of this judgment. You may also wish to contact plaintiff's attorney in this state, Randy T. Slovin, Esq., whose address is Mason, Slovin & Schilling Co., L.P.A., 11340 Montgomery Road, Suite 210, Cincinnati, Ohio 45249, and whose phone number is (513)489-0829.
