NOTICE OF FILING OF FOREIGN JUDGMENT

You are hereby notified that on September 12, 2003, pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 2329.022, CVS Systems, Inc. filed a copy of the judgment obtained by them against you on April 8, 2003 in the Grant Superior Court 1, State of Indiana, a copy of which is attached to this notice.

This judgment, on being filed pursuant to this section, has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of a Court of Common Pleas of this state, and may be enforced or satisfied in same manner as a judgment of a court of common pleas. However, no execution or other process for enforcements of a judgment that is filed pursuant to this section may issue until thirty days after the date that judgment is filed.

If you are able to show to this court that an appeal is pending or will be taken from this judgment, or that a stay of execution has been granted, and if proof is given to this court that you have furnished the security for satisfaction of the judgment that is required by the jurisdiction in which the judgment was issued, this court will stay enforcement of the judgment until the appeal is finally decided, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires of is vacated.

Further, if you are able to show to this court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of this court would be stayed, the court will, upon requiring the security for satisfaction of the judgment provided under Ohio law, stay enforcement of the judgment for an appropriate period.

You therefore have a period of 30 days beginning on September 12, the date of filing of this judgment, within which to request, and to demonstrate to this court that you are entitled to, a stay of enforcement of this judgment. Failure to make such a request within this time may result in the execution of this judgment against your property without further notice.

It is recommended that you contact an attorney if you wish to request a stay of enforcement of this judgment. You may also wish to contact plaintiff's attorney in this state, Mark E. Spitzer, P.O. Box 927, Marion, IN 46952, and whose telephone number is 765-664-7307.

NOTICE OF FILING OF FOREIGN JUDGMENT

You are hereby notified that on September 26, 2003, pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 2329.022, Valley Resources Inc filed a copy of the judgment obtained by them against you on July 18, 2003 in the State of Rhode Island, District Court, Sixth Division a copy of which is attached to this notice.

This judgment, on being filed pursuant to this section, has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of a Court of Common Pleas of this state, and may be enforced or satisfied in same manner as a judgment of a court of common pleas. However, no execution or other process for enforcements of a judgment that is filed pursuant to this section may issue until thirty days after the date that judgment is filed.

If you are able to show to this court that an appeal is pending or will be taken from this judgment, or that a stay of execution has been granted, and if proof is given to this court that you have furnished the security for satisfaction of the judgment that is required by the jurisdiction in which the judgment was issued, this court will stay enforcement of the judgment until the appeal is finally decided, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires of is vacated.

Further, if you are able to show to this court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of this court would be stayed, the court will, upon requiring the security for satisfaction of the judgment provided under Ohio law, stay enforcement of the judgment for an appropriate period.

You therefore have a period of 30 days beginning on September 26, 2003, the date of filing of this judgment, within which to request, and to demonstrate to this court that you are entitled to, a stay of enforcement of this judgment. Failure to make such a request within this time may result in the execution of this judgment against your property without further notice.

It is recommended that you contact an attorney if you wish to request a stay of enforcement of this judgment. You may also wish to contact plaintiff's attorney in this state, William W. Emley, Sr., and whose telephone number is (330) 491-5240.

CASE NO. 10947

Cartner Corp

NOTICE OF FILING OF FOREIGN JUDGMENT

You are hereby notified that on August 5, 2004, pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 2329.022, Winfield Lutz filed a copy of the judgment obtained by them against you on July 22, 2004 in the Court of Common Pleas of Clarion County PA a copy of which is attached to this notice.

This judgment, on being filed pursuant to this section, has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of a Court of Common Pleas of this state, and may be enforced or satisfied in same manner as a judgment of a court of common pleas. However, no execution or other process for enforcements of a judgment that is filed pursuant to this section may issue until thirty days after the date that judgment is filed.

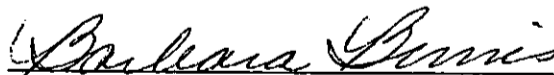

If you are able to show to this court that an appeal is pending or will be taken from this judgment, or that a stay of execution has been granted, and if proof is given to this court that you have furnished the security for satisfaction of the judgment that is required by the jurisdiction in which the judgment was issued, this court will stay enforcement of the judgment until the appeal is finally decided, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires of is vacated.

Further, if you are able to show to this court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of this court would be stayed, the court will, upon requiring the security for satisfaction of the judgment provided under Ohio law, stay enforcement of the judgment for an appropriate period.

You therefore have a period of 30 days beginning on August 6, 2004, the date of filing of this judgment, within which to request, and to demonstrate to this court that you are entitled to, a stay of enforcement of this judgment. Failure to make such a request within this time may result in the execution of this judgment against your property without further notice.

It is recommended that you contact an attorney if you wish to request a stay of enforcement of this judgment. You may also wish to contact plaintiff's attorney in this state, Matthew B. Taladay, and whose telephone number is (814) 371-7768.

that the Obligor may be brought before the Court to show cause why (s)he should not be sentenced to jail or why (s)he should not begin serving the sentence as stated above.

PAYMENTS

The Obligor shall pay $641.26, bi-weekly for CHILD SUPPORT, commencing with the next regularly scheduled payment, until the minor child(ren) should die, marry, become emancipated, or is/are otherwise no longer (a) dependent child(ren) pursuant to Sections 409.2554 (2) and 743.07 (2) Florida Statutes.

As of September 7, 1999, the Obligor owes child support ARREARS in the amount of $15,988.00.

A Judgment is entered in favor of the Obligee and against the Obligor in the amount of $15,988.00 for which let execution issue forthwith.

Therefore, the Obligor will also pay $126.92, bi-weekly, towards the arrears/judgment owed. Upon the minor child(ren) becoming emancipated, child support shall continue to be in effect until the arrears/judgment due and owing at the time of emancipation are paid in full.

Payments shall be made by income deduction pursuant to section 61.1301, Florida Statutes and the Obligor's employer/payor shall deduct payments pursuant to this Order.

The employer/payor shall further deduct all income which is paid in the form of a bonus, or other similar one-time payment, up to the amount of arrearage, or any remaining balance, as reported in any Notice to Payor. Bonus means a payment in addition to an Obligor's usual compensation and which is in addition to any amount contracted for or otherwise legally due and shall not include any commission payments due an obligor. The entire amount of any income paid in the form of a bonus, or other similar one-time payment, must be deducted to satisfy the arrears as indicated above. If the bonus exceeds the outstanding arrearage, the difference shall be paid to the Obligor. The Employer, upon making payments to the Central Depository, shall provide the date to the Central Depository on which each deduction is made.

The employer/payor shall not deduct in excess of the amounts allowed under Section 303(b) of the Consumer Credit Protection Act, 15 U.S.C., Section 1673(b). The total deduction on any one occasion may not exceed the maximum allowable under the Consumer Credit Protection Act, 15 U.S.C., Section 1673(b), (fifty percent [50%] of disposable income where the Obligor has a second family, sixty percent [60%] where there is no second family, and an additional five percent [5%] of either limit if the arrearage is equal to twelve [12] weeks, or more, in payments). If the amount to be deducted would otherwise exceed these limits, the employer/payor is to reduce the amount forwarded to the Central Depository accordingly.

The Obligor is responsible for the Clerk's fee of four percent (4%) for each payment made, but which shall not be greater than five dollars and twenty-five cents ($5.25). At any time that the prevailing Clerk's fee is amended by statute, the Obligor shall be responsible for the amended Clerk's fee without further order of the court.

Payments shall be made payable to the CENTRAL DEPOSITORY who shall forward all monies to the State of Florida, Child Support Enforcement Division, Department of Revenue for disbursement.

Pre-judgment interest has and shall continue to accrue on any outstanding arrearage at the statutory rate.

COSTS

The Obligor, upon entry of an Order on this Report/Recommended Order, shall pay:

- * Court costs in the amount of $20.00 within 180 days payable to the Child Support Enforcement Division, Department of Revenue.
- * Attorney/Administrative costs in the amount of $143.40 within 180 days payable to the Child Support Enforcement Division, Department of Revenue,

Fees/Costs should be mailed to THE STATE ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, 100 South Biscayne Boulevard, Suite 3100, Miami, Florida 33131-2002.

GENERAL RECOMMENDATIONS

An Order for Income Deduction shall be entered/continue to be in effect pursuant to Sections 61.1301 and 61.181, Florida Statutes. If the Obligor becomes eligible for unemployment compensation, the Department of Labor and Employment Security shall make deductions pursuant to Section 443.051 (3), Florida Statutes, and shall deduct and withhold from the Obligor's unemployment compensation an amount equal to 40% of the payment otherwise payable to the Obligor, or the amount of current support ordered herein, whichever is less. The Obligor shall continue to be liable for any arrearage accruing because of payment of a lesser amount towards his/her obligation of current support pursuant to this Order for Income Deduction.

OFF REC BK

Upon the direction of the Department of Revenue, the IV-D Agency, or upon further Order of this Court, the Central Depository shall forward all payments to the Obligee.

Any payments made other than through the CENTRAL DEPOSITORY, shall be deemed as gifts and shall not go towards meeting the Obligor's support obligation.

Pursuant to Chapters 61 and 742, Florida Statutes(1998), both parties shall file with this court, and with the State Attorney's Office, and shall provide in writing, any change in their residential and mailing addresses, telephone number, social security number, driver license number, and name, address, and telephone number of their employer for as long as this order shall remain in effect, unless otherwise indicated in this order. In any subsequent child support enforcement action between the parties, this court shall deem due process requirements for notice and service of process to be met, with respect to a party, upon delivery to the most recent residential or employer address filed, or updated, by the party with the court and the State Attorney's Office. Failure to provide a change of address may result in the court finding that Notice mailed to the address of record was proper and entering a default judgment against you establishing paternity and/or child support, entering an order finding you in contempt of court, issuing an order to show cause why you should not be held in contempt of court, or issuance of an order for your arrest for your failure to appear in court.

Additional remedies to enforce the arrearage, including but not limited to Internal Revenue Service intercepts, are hereby authorized as provided by law.

All prior Orders not inconsistent herewith are hereby reaffirmed.

In view of the above, the Hearing Officer herein recommends entry of this Order.
